

Job description

Job title:	HLTA
Responsible to:	SENDSCO / Phase Leader
Responsible for:	Teaching Assistants
Location:	Lift Hazelwood, Stokesay Drive, Swindon, Wiltshire, SN5 8DR
Hours of work:	15 hours per week, term time + inset days
Salary:	SCP 14

Overview of the role:

The role of the HLTA is to work in partnership with teachers to improve the learning and attainment of students while also promoting their independence, self-esteem and social inclusion. The role provides support to students so that they can access the curriculum, participate in learning and experience a sense of achievement.

In addition to the responsibilities of a Teaching Assistant, an HLTA will have a greater influence on students' education through their ability to cover lessons, support teachers through help with planning and leading parts of lessons, and where applicable, line manage TAs.

This role contributes to the Lift Schools' mission that every child receives an excellent education, in every classroom, every day.

Responsibilities:

Responsibilities specific to an HLTA:

- Cover lessons where required, as part of both planned and unplanned cover.
- Plan and deliver timetabled lessons, ensuring lessons are engaging and accessible to all students, including those with SEND.
- Support the role of parents in students' learning and contribute to/lead meetings with parents to provide constructive feedback on pupil progress and achievement.
- Administer and assess tests and invigilate exams.
- Support teachers with marking to assess learner progress, providing feedback to students and using this to inform future lesson planning.
- Line manage Teaching Assistants, supporting their development through observation, feedback, and coaching, and conduct performance reviews as required.
- Hold regular team meetings with managed staff.
- Provide support to teachers by leading parts of lessons, as well as running sessions for groups of students.
- Design and deliver intervention strategies to support students that are making less than expected progress, including those with SEND.
- Organise and manage an appropriate learning environment and resources that meet the diversity of students' needs and interests.

An HLTA will also fulfil the standard roles and responsibilities of a TA:

Teaching and learning

- Develop an understanding of students' learning needs, including specific SEND needs, in order to support their access to lesson content and achieve the learning objectives.
- Help students to develop independent learning skills and to manage their own learning.
- Work in partnership with teachers to plan and deliver high quality lessons, and assess students' learning.
- Deliver individual and small group targeted interventions within clearly defined parameters, in partnership with teachers.
- Develop positive relationships with students and promote positive behaviours, consistently applying the academy's behaviour policy.
- Support the social, emotional, mental health, wellbeing and personal care of all students in line with the academy's policy and procedures.

Working with others

- Collaborate with teaching staff, pastoral staff, the SENDCO and parents/carers to support all students' learning.
- Monitor students' responses to learning activities and progress towards targets, record achievement and provide feedback to teaching staff as required.
- Support teachers to develop a stimulating and safe learning environment.
- Support teachers in the preparation of teaching resources that meet the diverse needs and interests of students.
- Support teachers to look after students on trips and out of school activities as required.
- Contribute to the wider school community through completion of any school related duties throughout the working day.

Other clauses:

1. The above responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities contained in the Statement of Conditions of Employment. The postholder is expected to work to the best of their ability, to be diligent, honest and ethical in the performance of duties and to conduct personal and professional life to the highest standard such that public confidence in their integrity is sustained.
2. This job description does not form part of the contract of employment and is not a comprehensive definition of the post. The duties of this post may vary from time to time according to the needs of the school/Trust following consultation with the job holder. It will be reviewed periodically.
3. The postholder is expected to participate and engage with workplace learning and development opportunities to continually improve their own performance.
4. The postholder may deal with sensitive material and should maintain confidentiality in all school related matters as set out in their statement of terms and condition of employment.
5. Information about how and why we collect your data can be found in the "Lift Schools Privacy Notice for Staff" which you are required to comply with.
6. You are expected to take reasonable care of your own health and safety and to be mindful of the safety of others, to cooperate with instructions, to minimise and mitigate potential hazards and risks to others and to appropriately report hazards, illnesses or injuries in accordance with our Health & Safety Policy.

Safeguarding:

At Lift Schools we are committed to ensuring the highest levels of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students, and we expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We adopt a robust, fair and consistent recruitment process which is inline with Keeping Children Safe in Education guidance. This includes online checks for shortlisted candidates. All offers of employment are subject to an Enhanced DBS check, references, and where applicable, a prohibition from teaching check, and you are required to complete them and advise us immediately should you subsequently be convicted of an offence.

Equality, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion:

At Lift Schools, we want all of our employees to feel included bringing their passion, creativity and individuality to work. We value all cultures, backgrounds and experiences, and we truly believe that diversity drives innovation.
